

To The Ladies of Cool

Kathy Kosins

To The Ladies of Cool is Kathy Kosins' wonderful toast to Julie London, Anita O'Day, Chris Connor and June Christy. These legacies of these iconic vocalists are very well-known but much of the music associated with them remains unknown to a new generation of jazz enthusiasts. Enter Kathy Kosins who has based this recording on her multi-media concert show, "The Ladies of Cool." The program consists of 10 songs – some obscure, others quite famous. Listeners are treated to Kathy Kosins' smoky alto on such ballads as "Don't Wait Up For Me," "November Twilight," and "Where Are You" – all with new arrangements by Ms. Kosins' musical director Tamir Hendelman. By contrast, she offers her listeners a cool swinging sound on "All I Need Is You," and "Lullaby in Rhythm" both of which confirm her versatility and ability to tell the story behind the song. Joined by Hendelman on piano, Graham Dechter on guitar, Steve Wilkerson on reeds, and Bob Leatherbarrow on percussion, Kosins' interplay with her band is superlative. This is Kathy Kosins' debut for Resonance Records and it's one that should be in your collection. Check it out. Click on the CD cover to purchase To The Ladies of Cool.
